

VÉDAIRE RESIDENCES

M E Y D A N

VÉDAIRE derived from “Vogue”, symbolising style and elegance, and “Lumière”, the French word for light and radiance, Védairé embodies modern luxury, refined living, and an aura of timeless charm.

ELTON[▲]

Elton Group is not merely an architect of edifices; it is a curator of grandeur, a harbinger of transformation. From the pulsating dynamism of Mumbai to the resplendent allure of Dubai, every creation is an eloquent testament to ambition and artistry.

Under the astute stewardship of Anmoll D. Shroff, we don't just build homes—we sculpt experiences, define elegance, and raise the bar for luxury living.

At Védaire Residences, it's both

A sanctuary of sophistication, designed for those who see luxury as a way of life. With the city's vibrancy within reach and tranquillity at your doorstep, here, life doesn't just unfold; it flourishes.

An architectural rendering of a modern, multi-story residential building with a unique design. The building features a series of cantilevered balconies and a flat roof with a wide overhang. The facade is composed of large glass panels and white structural elements. The building is surrounded by lush tropical landscaping, including palm trees and various green plants. In the foreground, a paved walkway leads towards the building, where a few people are walking and a person is riding a self-balancing scooter. The sky is clear and blue.

Beyond four walls,
beyond expectations.

Védairé Residences redefines what it means to arrive because here, life moves at the speed of luxury.

The woman is running on a treadmill next to him, wearing a blue sports bra and black leggings, smiling and looking back at him. In the background, another person is visible on a treadmill. The gym has a modern, dark interior with various exercise machines.

A romantic scene of a couple sitting on a rooftop at sunset. The woman is on the left, with long dark hair, and the man is on the right, wearing a light-colored t-shirt. They are both looking towards a large, brightly lit screen in the background, which appears to be showing a movie. The sky is a warm orange and yellow, and there are bokeh lights from the city in the distance. The text "For those who live the movies" is written in a white, cursive font across the middle of the image.

For those who live the movies

Open Theatre

Whether you're a cinephile chasing the magic of the silver screen or a family making movie night a tradition, Védair's private theatre brings stories to life.

A close-up shot of a chef's arm and hand, wearing a dark apron over a light-colored shirt, using metal tongs to flip a round, browned food item on a black grill. The grill is filled with various items, including several round, browned items and some rectangular, golden-brown items. In the background, three people are standing and talking, slightly out of focus. The setting appears to be an outdoor market or festival during the day.

Fire up the grill feed the soul.

Zen Garden

A peaceful retreat where nature and serenity come together.

Barbecue Area

Good food, great company,
and endless memories.

A warm, intimate photograph of a family in a rustic-style living room. A man with a beard and dark hair, wearing a grey button-down shirt over a white t-shirt and brown trousers, stands on the left, smiling down at a woman and a young girl. The woman, with long, wavy brown hair, is seated on a light-colored sofa, wearing a white long-sleeved shirt and smiling at the girl. The girl, with her hair in a braid, is also seated on the sofa, wearing a blue and white checkered shirt. The background features a stone fireplace mantel with decorative items, a large window with sheer curtains, and a green plant on the right. The overall atmosphere is cozy and domestic.
